SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 8.

Intellect.

BY ADAM ISAACS MENKIN.
Where is the promise of my years
Once written on my brow—
Ere errors, agonies, and fears
Brought with them all that speaks in tears,
Ere I had sunk beneath my peers—
Where sleeps that promise now?

Naught lingers to redeem those hours
Still, still to memory sweet;
The flowers that bloomed in sunny bowers
Are withered all, and Evil towers
Supreme above her sister powers
Of sorrow and deceit.

I look along the columned years,
And see Life's riven face
Just where it fell—amid the years
Of scornful lips, whose moaning eases
Forever his within my ears
To break the sleep of pain.

I can but own my life is vain,
A desert void of peace;
I missed the goal I sought to gain—
I missed the measure of the strain
That lulls fame's fever in the brain,
And bids earth's tumult cease.

Myself? Alas for those so poor!
A theme too rich in fear;
I stand a wreck on Error's shore,
A specter not within the door,
A homeless shadow evermore,
An exile lingering here!

MEDICAL.

TRADE MARK
S.S.S.
Perry, Ga., April 14, 1879.

I have watched the use of the medicine now known as "Swiss Syphilitic Specific" over fifty years, and have never heard of a failure to cure when properly taken. I commenced the use of it on my slaves, between 1850 and 1855, as also did a number of my neighbors, and in every case that came within my knowledge it effected a cure. In 1855 Geo. Walker, bought at auction a slave not warranted. After the purchase it was discovered that he had had Syphilis for twelve years. His head was without a hair on it. He treated him with this remedy, and in four weeks he was sound and well, and in a short time had as fine a head of hair as was ever owned by a negro. He owned this slave many years, and he never had any return of the disease, nor lost a day's work.

The Common Sense Stew Pan!
THE GREATEST CULINARY INVENTION OF THE AGE.

It is made of fire clay and is the only fire proof vessel made of clay in the market. It is finely GLAZED inside and out, which is warranted not to scale off or become damaged by heat.
READ THIS—Fruit of the most acidulous nature can be cooked in them without obtaining any metallic taste or discoloration. They will not scorch or burn as iron and tin pots do; they are made of pure fire clay and the glazing being purely earthen, hence they are more conducive to good health. It is strong and durable and with ordinary care will last an age. Being the lowest priced vessel ever offered, it is within the reach of every one.
Buy one and you will never be without one.
For sale by GREGORY & O'BRIEN, wholesale, and McLEAN & UHLER, wholesale and retail.
